John A. Schepisi Recognized by Stevens Institute of Technology

Stevens Institute of Technology bestowed its Outstanding Contribution Award to John A. Schepisi at its Inaugural Awards Gala held on April 6, 2013. Mr. Schepisi is a Stevens graduate of the Class of 1965, earning a degree in Chemical Engineering before going on to earn his law degree from St. John's University. He is a brother of the Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity and has dedicated his time, guidance, and service to Stevens as a member of the Board of Trustees since 2005. His sage advice to Stevens, including his professional legal counsel over countless hours and meetings, has made a tremendous impact on his alma mater. In addition, Mr. Schepisi has championed greater engagement in Stevens among his classmates and peers, and has vigorously, persuasively, and successfully engaged in class fundraising for student scholarships. For his passionate support of his alma mater in so many ways, Stevens was proud to name John A. Schepisi the winner of the 2013 Outstanding Contribution Award.
